GUIDELINES FOR THE BAPTISM OF INFANTS

Congratulations on the birth of your child! We hope that all is well with mother, child and family. These guidelines are to assist you in preparing for the rebirth of your child by water and the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Baptism. These guidelines are to be followed when baptizing infants and children, who have not yet reached catechetical age. If your child is in first grade in elementary school, contact the Pastoral Center.

The decision to have your child baptized is not something to be taken lightly; it must be made only after serious reflection. In the Sacrament of Baptism, your child will begin the process of initiation into the Catholic Church, a process that continues through First Communion and is completed in Confirmation. You will be asked during the celebration of the baptism to promise God and the Church to raise your child in the practice of the faith and you are accepting the responsibility of being the first teacher(s) of your child in the ways of this faith. You will also nominate one or two other people of faith to be your child's baptismal sponsors, or godparents, and to assist you in fulfilling this obligation. Please read and follow these guidelines so that the preparation process and the baptism can both proceed smoothly.

Steps in the Preparation Process

- 1. Read these guidelines.
- 2. Read the accompanying page “Some Laws of the Church Related to Baptism”.
Please use this information in deciding whether or not you are ready to accept the responsibility of being the parent(s) of a baptized child at this time and whether or not your proposed sponsors (godparents) are qualified.
- 3. Completely fill out the Baptism Registration Form on the back of this page.
 - a) Call the Pastoral Center (805) 735-3068 to make an appointment for your pre-baptismal interview. Both parents must come to the interview unless they are no longer together. Godparents do not need to be interviewed. Bring your completed form with you to the interview where it will be reviewed and discussed.
 - b) If you do not live within the boundaries of La Purísima Concepción Parish, even if you attend Mass here regularly, you must bring a letter of permission to baptize your child from the parish in which you do live when you come in for the interview.
 - c) A copy of the child's Birth Certificate must be submitted at the interview.
- 4. Attend a Pre-Baptismal Class before the Baptism.
If there is not any reason to delay the baptism, you will be given a schedule for classes and baptism at the end of your interview. Parents and godparents must attend a pre-baptismal class. If they attend this class at another parish, or if they have attended a class within the last three years, they may present a certificate of attendance from that class instead of attending again. Please do not bring children to the class.
- 5. Celebrate the Baptism.

If you have any questions about these guidelines or the attached page of laws related to Baptism, please feel free to call the Pastoral Center during business hours or ask during your interview.

A word on your donation: Catholics have an obligation to support their parish community with their “Time, Talent, and Treasure.” Your donation of $30.00 on the day of the Baptism goes to the parish, not to the priest. Please use the special envelope provided for your baptism donation.

SOME LAWS OF THE CHURCH RELATED TO BAPTISM

To help you in making decisions related to your child's baptism and to understand the process better, please read this page before filling out the application form and having your pre-baptismal interview with Fr. Tom Cook.

Canon 851. It is necessary that the Celebration of Baptism be properly prepared. Thus:

Canon 851.2 The parents of an infant who is to be baptized and likewise those who are to undertake the office of sponsor are to be properly instructed in the meaning of the sacrament and the obligations which are attached to it; personally or through others, the pastor is to see to it that the parents are properly formed by pastoral directions and by common prayer, gathering several families together and where possible visiting them. This is the purpose of the pre-baptism program in each parish. The class is designed, according to the guidelines of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, to prepare parents and godparents to understand the sacraments, especially Baptism and its celebration, to understand the history and meaning of each of the symbols used in the celebration, to offer suggestions for raising children as Catholics, and for living Catholic family life.

Canon 854. Baptism is to be conferred either by immersion or by pouring, the prescription of the conference of bishops being observed. La Purísima Concepción parish uses both forms. Parents make the decision of which form they would like.

Canon 855. Parents, sponsors and the pastor are to take care that a name foreign to a Christian mentality is not given. Traditionally, children of Catholics have been given "Christian" names, i.e., the names of saints or Christian virtues. This law, instead, is meant to exclude names chosen deliberately by parents that are offensive to Christian belief or practice. There is rarely a problem with using a child's birth name.

Canon 856. Although baptism may be celebrated on any day, it is recommended that ordinarily it be celebrated on a Sunday or if possible at the Easter Vigil. Most of the baptisms at La Purísima Concepción are on the 3rd Saturday of the month. The schedule will be given to you at your interview. Private baptisms are not permitted except in extenuating circumstances.

Canon 857.2 As a rule adults are to be baptized in their own parish church and infants in the church proper to their parents, unless just cause suggests otherwise.

Ideally, your child should be baptized in the church that he or she will be attending every Sunday with you until reaching adulthood and in which he or she will be celebrating First Communion, Confirmation, and going to confession. If you do not live within the parish boundaries of La Purísima Concepción and are not registered here, you must bring to your interview a letter of permission from the parish in which you do live. We cannot baptize the children of other parishes without their own priest's permission.

Canon 867.1 Parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first few weeks after birth; as soon as possible after the birth, or even before, parents are to go to the pastor to request the Sacrament for their child and to be prepared for it properly. If your child has passed the age of a few weeks and reached the age of a few months, you are late! Please call for your appointment as soon as possible. There are no good reasons to delay the baptism of the child that you love. As mentioned in the law itself, it is perfectly possible to make all the preparations for your child's baptism even before the birth. This is usually more convenient and helps to avoid unnecessary delays.

Canon 867.2 An infant in danger of death is to be baptized without delay.

Request that a doctor or nurse at the hospital call a priest or a deacon immediately if your baby is in danger of death. In the absence of a priest or deacon, anyone with the right intention may baptize. This includes doctors, nurses, sisters, other staff members, parents or other family members, etc.

Canon 868.1 For the licit baptism of an infant it is required that:

- 1. The parents or at least one of them or the person, who lawfully holds their place, gives consent. Normally, the "person who lawfully holds their place" is an adoptive parent with a final decree of adoption.
- 2. That there be a founded hope that the child will be brought up in the Catholic religion; if such a hope is truly lacking the baptism is to be put off in accordance with the prescriptions of particular law and the parents are to be informed of the reason. This is one of the reasons for the interview with the priest. A "founded hope" generally is based on the lives of the Catholic parent(s), that they live like people of Catholic faith and are therefore likely to faithfully pass it on to the baptized children entrusted to them by God and the church.

Information about SPONSORS / GODPARENTS

Canon 872. Insofar as possible one to be baptized is to be given a sponsor who is... together with the parents, to present an infant at the baptism, and who will help the baptized to lead a Christian life in harmony with baptism, and to fulfill faithfully the obligations connected with it. The role of the sponsor is not just honorary; it is an office in the church with serious responsibilities and obligations to child, family, and church. The church has established qualifications for those nominated by the parents. Your godparents' qualifications will be reviewed during your interview with Father.

Canon 873. Only one male or one female or one of each sex is to be employed (as sponsors). You may propose one or two qualified persons; if there are two, they must be one male and one female.

Canon 874.1 To be admitted to the role of sponsor, a person must: the word “must” used here does mean “must”:

874.1.1 be designated by the one to be baptized, by the parents or the one who takes their place or, in their absences, by the pastor or minister and is to have the qualification and intention of performing the role;

874.1.2 Have completed the sixteenth year, unless a different age has been established by the diocesan bishop or it seems to the pastor or minister that an exception is to be made for just cause;

874.1.3 be a Catholic who has been confirmed and who has already received the Sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist and leads a life in harmony with the faith and role to be undertaken;
The role of a “sponsor” in any organization is to present new members and to assist them in completing their initiation into the group. The sponsor is one who has completed the initiation process already. The three Sacraments of Initiation are Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. To be a godparent, a person must have received all three of these Sacraments and be living a Catholic life. The lifestyle of the proposed sponsor(s) will be discussed in the pre-baptismal interview.

874.1.4 not be bound by any canonical penalty legitimately imposed or declared.

One of the most common penalties is that imposed on those who identify themselves as members of the Church but who choose to live lives that publicly contradict the moral teachings and laws of the Church: they may not receive the sacraments and they may not be appointed to the offices in the church (i.e., godparent) while the contradiction continues. Married sponsors must be married in the Church.

874.1.5 not be the father or the mother of the one to be baptized.

Canon 874.2 A baptized person who belongs to a non-Catholic ecclesial community may not be admitted except as a witness and together with a Catholic sponsor. This law makes it possible for a friend and family member who is a baptized Christian, but not a Catholic Christian, to have a special role in your child's spiritual life. If there is one qualified Catholic godparent for your child, then you may propose a non-Catholic as a Christian witness, instead of having a second godparent. The Church cannot oblige such a person to make the same promise as a Catholic godparent, to help you raise your child in the Catholic faith; such a promise would violate the witness's conscience and beliefs. However, a Christian Witness can witness to the more basic truths which all Christian churches do share. Catholics are either qualified to be godparents or not, they may not act as Christian Witnesses.
